

Thursday, September 20

ΣX 9:30 p.m. | Q's @ The Foose 1013 9th Street Appt. 2

Kick off homecoming weekend with the traditional Thursday night activity, courtesy of our Foose bros.

Friday, September 21

ΣX 1:00 - 3:30 p.m. | BBQ

Swift Patio

Backyard games, classic tunes, and smoking grills make a great hangover recovery program—or a comfortable afternoon. Come join the camaraderie for the occasion.

D 5:00 p.m. - 11 p.m. | Party on the Plaza

Bryan Center Plaza and Penn Pavilion

Duke alumni are invited to enjoy our newest Homecoming tradition. Reconnect with your friends and the Duke community while enjoying music, activities, student performances and more on the plaza from 5-11 pm. Snacks and beverages will be provided to help you get your Homecoming Weekend off to a festive start! At 8 pm, head over to the Alumni VIP Lounge in Penn Pavilion – exclusively for alumni – and enjoy beer, wine, non-alcoholic drinks and light appetizers. It's an all-night party you don't want to miss!

ΣX 9:00 p.m. | Q's @ The Foose 1013 9th Street Appt. 2

More Q's courtesy of the Foose bros.

Saturday, September 22

ΣX 11:00 a.m. - Football Game | BFOS (OOOAE BLOPNWTTSPM)

Campus Drive – BF Field

Ski the bee and make history on our laminated record board. BFCs Mike Ortiz and Eric Reit have been waiting for this moment all year.

Note: The BFCs did not want brothers/alumni to have to decide between the football game and BF. Therefore, called BF will officially begin at 11:00 AM.

3:30 p.m - 7:00 p.m. | Duke Football vs. NC Central

Wallace Wade Stadium

Cheer for the football team and Coach Cutcliffe when the Blue Devils take to the gridiron against the NCCU in Wallace Wade Stadium.

Sunday, September 23

ΣX 11:00 a.m. | Chapter

Soc. Psych 130

Join us for our weekly chapter on Sunday if you want. Length is usually an hour.
